Blue Angels Headline Thunder Over New Hampshire Air Show

U.S Navy Jet Team Makes its Return After More Than a Decade

PORTSMOUTH, NH (Aug. 1, 2024) – The Thunder Over New Hampshire Air Show is returning to Pease Air National Guard Base in Newington, NH, Sept. 6-7, 2025, and will be headlined by the U.S. Navy Blue Angels who are appearing at Pease for the first time in 13 years.

“There is just nothing more exciting than welcoming the Blue Angels to the air show. They have the heritage and prestige of being the premier jet team,” said Jim Ryan, president of the New Hampshire Military Assistance Foundation, the non-profit organization co-producing the air show along with Herb Gillen Airshows.

General admission for the show is free. Advanced reservations parking passes will be required for those driving to the event – some will be free when secured in advance and there will be paid parking lots as well. A limited number of premium seating tickets and parking reservations go on sales to the public on Sept. 10 at 8 AM (EST). However, subscribers to the ‘Air Show Insights’ newsletter will have exclusive access to purchase tickets for 72 hours prior to that time. Premium seating has sold out quickly for the prior two air shows.
